JOINT MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME

AT&T Communications of Indiana, GP and TCG Indianapolis ("AT&T"), and WorldCom, Inc. ("WorldCom") (collectively, "Joint Movants") respectfully move for an extension of the procedural schedule in the above Cause, and in support of this joint motion state that:

1. Under the current schedule, the Joint Movants' responses to Ameritech Indiana's September 26, 2002 filing and its November 18, 2002 matrix (CLECs' Comments) are due on December 9, 2002. Ameritech Indiana's reply is due on January 6, 2003.
2. The December 9 deadline poses logistical and workload difficulties for the Joint Movants' counsel and witnesses who are also preparing a sizable filing, due December 5, in the Ameritech Wisconsin 271 proceeding (Docket No. 6720-TI-170). A two day extension would reduce the burden on these counsel and witnesses in this Cause.
3. The Joint Movants respectfully request that the schedule for the filing of the their and other parties' responses, and of Ameritech Indiana's reply thereto, be adjusted as follows:

December 11, 2002 CLECs' Comments due (extended from December 9)

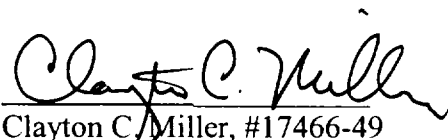

January 8, 2003 Ameritech Indiana's Reply Comments due (extended from January 6)

4. Clark M. Stalker, counsel for AT&T Communications of Indiana, GP, contacted counsel for all other parties by telephone and/or e-mail on December 3, 2002 to determine if any party objected to this proposed schedule change. Counsel for the Indiana Office of Utility Consumer Counselor, Ameritech Indiana, and Time Warner Telecom have each communicated their client's approval of the Joint Movants' proposed revised schedule, and no party has responded with an objection to the modification of the schedule as described herein.

WHEREFORE, the Joint Movants respectfully request that the Commission grant this Joint Motion for Extension of Time.

Respectfully submitted,
